

N

NEW YORK, 3 November 2018 –Philippine Airlines (PAL), the national flag carrier, started flying nonstop between New York's JFK airport and Manila last 29 October 5 times weekly on their new Airbus 350-900. PAL hosted a launch event at the Philippine Center to announce the news to travel trade partners, the media and select community members last 26 October.

Please click here to read full press release