

PHILIPPINE CONSULATE GENERAL NEW YORK
P R E S S R E L E A S E

PR-MTD- 110-2017

11 July 2017

PHL Consulate General Conducts Consular Outreach in Albany, New York

08 JULY 2017, NEW YORK CITY - An outreach team from the Philippine Consulate General in New York went to Albany, New York last Saturday, 8 July 2017 to provide consular services to members of the Filipino-American community in the state capital and nearby areas. The team was headed by Consul Arman R. Talbo.

One hundred three services, including 59 passport renewals, 24 notarials, and 14 dual citizenship applications, were successfully processed during the one-day event which was co-organized with Ms. Wendy Press of the Albany Medical Center, with the support of the Bayanihan Association led by Ms. Catherine D. Codamon.

The weekend consular outreach also netted 54 Overseas Voting registrants.

Mr. Michael Azucena, Pag-IBIG representative based in New York, joined the consular team to promote Pag-IBIG's programs.

The next consular outreach of the Consulate will be held in Newport, Rhode Island on 22-23 July. Members of the Fil-Am community in nearby areas are encouraged to avail themselves of the Consulate's services during outreach missions so that they will not have to travel to Manhattan and miss a day of work. END

Members of the Consular Outreach Team provide consular services to the Fil-Am community in Albany, New York and nearby areas last 8 June 2017 at the Center for Learning and Development of the Albany Medical Center. (photo by NYPCG)

Consul Arman R. Talbo (4th from the left) explains the benefits of dual citizenship to the applicants before they take their oath. To his left are Ms. Wendy Press of Albany Medical Center and Ms. Catherine D. Codamon of the Bayanihan Association who witnessed the ceremony. (photo by Ms. Vangie T. Carl)