Philippine Consulate General- New York Delivers Services to Connecticut-Based Filipinos

NEW YORK, 05 September 2017 – The Philippine Consulate General in New York, working together with the Philippine-American Association of Connecticut, Inc.(PAAC), the Pilipino Association of CT., Inc., (PACI), the New England Filipino American, Inc., (NEFAI) and the Samahang Pilipino Americano sa CT (SAPAC) conducted a consular outreach mission to Connecticut on September 02, 2017.

The 9-person consular team was headed by Consul Kerwin Tate. Consul General Tess De Vega likewise joined the Team midday to assist in the outreach and administer the oath of allegiance to Citizenship Re-acquisition applicants. The team attended to the needs of the Filipino communities in the Connecticut and New England area, serving clients who came not just from Connecticut but Massachusetts and Rhode Island as well.

The outreach activity was met with an enthusiastic response from both the organizers and the Filipino community, many of whom had been looking forward to the consular team's arrival. Throughout the day, the Consular Team was able to process 140 consular services, 23 dual citizenship applications, and registered 38 new overseas absentee voters. END
