

Consulate General of the Republic of the Philippines

NEW YORK

PHOTO RELEASE

01 November 2017

International Film Festival Manhattan (IFFM) 2017 Promotes Diverse Films

Organizers and winners at the International Film Festival Manhattan (IFFM) led by the triumvirate of Filipino-American filmmakers, actors, and creatives Luis Pedron, Gerry Balasta and Jeanette Marco pose at the Award Nights of the 7th edition of the IFFM at the Philippine Center in New York on 18 October 2017. Films from difference countries in various genres – feature length, documentary, shorts, and experimental films were screened during the Festival held at the Producers' Club Theater in New York City. (photos by Jeanette Marco)

Consul General Theresa Dizon-De Vega congratulates all the organizers and participants in the film festival. The opening night film was "Across the Crescent Moon" written and directed by Baby Nebrida