

CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES
NEW YORK

P R E S S R E L E A S E

PR-MTD-007-2018

19 January 2018

National Autism Consciousness Week Commemorated at the Philippine Center in New York

Consul General Theresa Dizon-De Vega (2nd from left first row) with officers and staff of the Philippine Consulate General in New York, the Philippine Mission to the UN in New York, and the Philippine Center Management Board recite the “1 Pangako” led by Consul Arman Talbo (photo by NYPCG)

19 January 2018, New York City – In line with the observation of National Autism Consciousness Week from 14 to 20 January 2018, the Philippine Consulate General in New York, Philippine Permanent Mission to the United Nations in New York, and the Philippine Center Management Board recited the pledge entitled “1 Pangako” (One Promise) at the Lobby-Gallery of the Philippine Center-New York.

Some members of the Filipino-American Community likewise joined the recital of the pledge which was led by Consul Arman Talbo.

National Autism Consciousness Week aims to raise awareness of the challenges faced by persons falling within the autism spectrum, their needs as well as their potential as members of society. END

For more information, visit www.newyorkpcg.org and www.facebook.com/PHConsulateNY