PHL Team bags Basketball Championship

PHL Basketball Team in its Semi Finals match in the NJ Ballers Winter Basketball Tournament

22 April 2018 - As part of its ongoing effort to engage with Filipinos and Filipino-Americans in the US Northeast Region through Sports Diplomacy, the Philippine Consulate General in New York personnel formed the PHL Basketball Team and participated in the NJ Baller Winter Basketball Tournament in Jersey City, New Jersey from January 28 – April 22, 2018.

The PHL Basketball Team, composed of personnel from the Consulate General and the Philippine Mission to the United Nations, their family members and friends, played their hearts out and surprisingly won the Championship in one of the Divisions.

Most of the participants in the said tournament come from New Jersey, New York and nearby states such as Pennsylvania. There were two Divisions with 9 teams in each Division.

The participation in the tournament enabled the Consulate to strengthen connections and rapport with Filipino community teams and families who joined in the said tournament.
