17 December 2019, NEW YORK –The Philippine Consulate General in New York commenced overseas voter registration yesterday for the 2022 Philippine National elections.

A total of twenty (20) overseas voters registered yesterday at the Consulate General: 14 were first time registrants, 4 were transfers, 2 were reactivations. Of these registrants, five (5) were from those who newly reacquired their Philippine citizenship.

The Consulate opened overseas registration to the public yesterday and will continue to do so until end of registration in 2021. The Consulate will also include OV registration during its weekend consular outreach missions, to cater to the needs of kababayans who cannot go to the Consulate on weekdays. END
