

P R E S S R E L E A S E

PR-CSC-006-2020

24 September 2020

ConGen Press Hour with the Filipino-American Press Club of New York

Consul General Claro S. Cristobal (6th from the right) with the Filipino-American Press Club of New York (FAPCNY) members at the ConGen Press Hour held on 21 February.

24 February 2020 – Consul General Claro S. Cristobal met with the members of the Filipino-American Press Club of New York (FAPCNY) for the ConGen Press Hour held at the Philippine Center last 21 February.

During the meeting, questions were asked by the media on various topics like overseas registration and voting, Covid-19 updates in the Philippines, VIP Tour, and immigration control in the Philippines. The media group shared their programs for 2020 such as professional development activities like scholarship programs, seminars and trainings that they are planning launch. They will also undertake a campaign for the community on responsible sharing of news on social media. The group committed to support the upcoming Filipino Restaurant Week 2020 this May spearheaded by Post and Washington DC PE.

END.

For more information, visit www.newyorkpcg.org and www.facebook.com/PHConsulateNY

Consul General Cristobal shares his experiences from his previous posts.

For more information, visit www.newyorkpcg.org and www.facebook.com/PHConsulateNY

FAPCNY members and Consul General Cristobal engage in a productive discussion.

For more information, visit www.newyorkpcg.org and www.facebook.com/PHConsulateNY